Downtown Trolley & Saturday Night Trolley Summer Hours Postponed

Due to COVID-19, the Staunton Downtown Trolley and Saturday Night Trolley summer hours are postponed until further notice. The Downtown Trolley will continue to operate Monday-Saturday, 10am-6pm, and the Saturday Night Trolley will continue to operate Saturday, 6pm-9pm.

Safety is our highest priority at BRITE. During the COVID-19 pandemic, BRITE has elected to postpone service in order to minimize the risk of exposure for BRITE operators and riders. BRITE will work with City staff to implement summer hours in concert with the City's COVID-19 recovery plan in consultation with City staff.

Service Notes

- The regularly scheduled BTAC meeting was held on May 13 via video conference.
- On May 14, BRITE staff participated in a Title VI training.
- The BRITE Transit Facility inspection was completed on May 14.
- In observance of Memorial Day, May 25, BRITE Bus routes did not operate, the only exception being the Staunton Downtown Trolley.
- Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, rides are fare-free on all BRITE Bus routes until further notice.
- Throughout the month, BRITE staff participated in multiple webinars regarding COVID-19 and CARES Act funding.
- BRITE has been complying with Executive Order 63 issued by Governor Northam requiring masks on the buses, and BRITE has been providing riders with free masks if needed.
